EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Harry on 12/14/2006. Accordingly, claim 9 is canceled.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-8 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

Claims 1-8 are allowed since there is no prior art of record that teaches or suggests a liquid crystal display device comprising a relationship of various elements as claimed with the specific allowable subject matter cited in the following claims:

Claims 1 and 8:

- a pixel electrode formed in at least one pixel of the plurality of pixels
- a common electrode formed in at least one pixel of the plurality of pixels and placed across from the pixel electrode
- a capacitor electrode connected to the common electrode
- a capacitor terminal placed opposite to the capacitor electrode with the insulating layer therebetween to generate capacitance, and connected to the pixel electrode through at least two contact holes in the insulating layer above the capacitor terminal

Claims 2-7 are allowed since they depend on the allowed claim 1.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Nishimura et al (US 2002/0149729) discloses a liquid crystal display device with almost every limitation as in current invention's claims, but "a capacitor terminal placed opposite to the capacitor electrode with the insulating layer therebetween to generate capacitance, and connected to the pixel electrode through at least two contact holes in the insulating layer above the capacitor terminal."

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".
